1 2021

Summary

North Macedonia regularly reports hate crime data to ODIHR. North Macedonia implemented ODIHR's Training Against Hate Crimes for Law Enforcement (TAHCLE) Programme in 2014, training more than 2,000 police officers under the programme by 2018. Following changes to the hate crime provisions in 2018, a refresher training-of-trainers session for police was conducted by ODIHR in December 2021. North Macedonia implemented ODIHR's Prosecutors and Hate Crime Training (PAHCT) programme in 2019, and in 2022 completed a training course on hate crimes for the judiciary together with the OSCE Mission to Skopje.

ODIHR's Key Observation

ODIHR recognizes North Macedonia's efforts to build the capacity of police and prosecutors to address hate crimes effectively. However, based on the available information, it observes that law enforcement agencies have not recorded the bias motivations behind hate crimes. In addition, ODIHR observes that North Macedonia would benefit from continuing to raise awareness among and build the capacity of criminal justice officials to address hate crime.

Official Data

The 22 cases reported by police involved 21 perpetrators. The figures may include cases of hate speech and discrimination, which fall outside of the OSCE's hate crime definition. The records on prosecuted cases represent cases pending before Basic Courts; of the total number, 118 cases are pending before the Basic Criminal Court in Skopje.

National Developments

In June and December 2021, the Academy for Judges and Public Prosecutors (Academy) conducted two one-day online training sessions on hate crime attended by 14 judges and 12 prosecutors from across the country. The training sessions were delivered based on a Memorandum of Understanding signed between the Academy, the Office of the State Public Prosecutor and ODIHR in 2019.

In December 2021, as part of ODIHR's Training Against Hate Crimes for Law Enforcement (TAHCLE) programme, a re-fresher training-of-trainers session (ToT) on hate crimes was held for police of in Ohrid. In total, 22 participants (7 women and 15 men) from across the country participated in the training. The trainers shall further deliver the TAHCLE training on hate crimes during the cascaded phase of the programme.
